My early learning years where spent sailing off the coast of Scotland and the UK, to sailing catamarans from Freeport in the Bahamas. Then on to North America and the Great Lakes exploring both the USA and Canada which also included broker vessel relocations/deliveries for new vessel owners.

This passion for the sport has led me to become a Sail Canada Certified Sailing Instructor. My aspirations are to promote the sport of sailing and to hopefully inspire a new generation of sailors.

I have a patient, supportive teaching style and always preserve the importance of having fun while always maintaining a safe learning enviorment. Sailing is a sport that can be learned at any age, with resources available for beginners of all ages

Sailtata is Sail Canada Certified Sailing School of Learning and I am committed to ensuring that everyone who sails with us gets the best out of their time on the water.
