Sail Nova Scotia

ALEX ROY

Hi! I'm Alex, a computer science student from Halifax who gained a love for sailing at a very young age. Through sailing my laser as well as coaching new and experienced sailors to succeed, I see the value and life lessons it brings to people. There are always new experiences to be had on the water and is without a doubt one of the best life-long sports to get into. When I am not on the water or programming I enjoy rock climbing and skateboarding.

RAFAEL PEDRO

My name is Rafael Pedro, I am from a small town on the south shore of Nova Scotia called Shelburne where I started sailing when I was 8 years old. I currently sail an olympic class skiff called the 49er and love to be on the water as much as possible. During the off season I attend Dalhousie University in Halifax where I am studying oceanography and meteorology. I have been a sailing coach for 6 years in a row (this being my 7th) and I am excited to share my knowledge with your community!
